

Seif Mohamed

SAYS

- "I want to become a software engineer and create technology."
- "I enjoy playing sports as a way to stay active and have fun."
- "Limited tech resources can be frustrating."
- "Balancing my interests in programming, sports, and reading can be challenging."

THINKS

- "How can I pursue my dream of becoming a software developer?"
- "Sports provide me with an outlet for physical activity and relaxation."
- "Reading and writing help me express my thoughts and imagination."
- "I need a quiet and focused environment to work on my programming."

DOES

- Seif actively engages in programming and coding activities to develop his skills.
- He participates in sports and physical activities to stay active and unwind.
- He spends time reading and writing as a way to express his creativity.
- He may express frustration when dealing with limited tech resources.

FEELS

- Seif is determined to become a software engineer and make a positive impact
- Sports bring him joy, relaxation, and physical well-being.
- Reading and writing provide a creative and intellectual outlet.
- He feels annoyed by unnecessary chatter

