

Sarah Taha

SAYS

- "I want to empower my kids with programming skills for their future."
- "Spending quality time with my family"
- "I enjoy reading and cooking"
- "I value education and encourage my children to learn and grow."
- "Balancing life, parenting, and education can be challenging."

THINKS

- "How can I best support and encourage my children's programming education?"
- "I find relaxation and joy in reading, gardening, and cooking with my kids."
- "Education is a life long journey, and I want my children to embrace it."
- "Managing time and resources efficiently"

DOES

- Sarah actively supports her children's programming education
- She spends time reading, gardening, and cooking with her kids
- Sarah encourages a love for learning and growth in her children.
- She works on balancing her responsibilities as a parent, homemaker, and supporter of her children's education

FEELS

- Sarah is passionate about empowering her children with programming skills.
- Quality family time brings her joy and fulfillment.
- Gardening, cooking, and outdoor nature walks create a sense of relaxation and togetherness.
- She feels a strong commitment to her children's education and personal growth.

